Two Perish In Overturning Of Motor Boat

An overturned motorboat being operated on Bixby Slough flood waters on Monday claimed the lives of two persons, endangered two more and left three children homeless.

The dead are Aubra Olen Chesser, 44, Consolidated Shipyard worker, and his wife, Etta May, 35, who live at 1630A W. 25th st., Harbor City. The three children are Mrs. Chesser's by a previous marriage.

Those who were rescued when the boat upset are Lester Roberts and his wife Lois, who were enjoying the boating with the Chessers. When the boat turned over, Roberts was able to reach shore unaided and F. E. Bowen, a city fireman, rushed in and brought Mrs. Roberts to shore. It was necessary for firemen J. Tranuto and Cliff Nelson to work for some time with a pulmotor before the woman was revived.

Chesser's body was found afloat an hour later but it was necessary to drag the slough to recover Mrs. Chesser's body.

Bodies of the two will be shipped to Stanton, Texas, by the Cartwright Mortuary, it was announced yesterday.

TIME-SAVER

Rather than spend time digging potatoes by hand, some housewives keep an empty baking powder can for the purpose. By punching a few holes in the bottom of the can to let out the air and by using the sharp top edge as a chopper, you can cut potatoes to desired size in just a second or two.

TEXAS REGISTRATION

Motor vehicle registrations in Texas have fallen off 14 percent since prewar 1941, the license bureau of the Automobile Club of Southern California was informed this week. In the same period of time, gasoline tax collections in Texas dropped 26.6 percent and traffic 30 percent.
